15 AI PROMPTS WE USE ON REAL CLIENT BRANDS (STEAL THEM)

Captions. Scripts. Strategy. Copy, paste, go.

THESE AREN'T THEORY.

Every prompt in this pack runs on real client brands at Cruz Creative: captions, scripts, strategy. Replace anything in [brackets], paste into ChatGPT or Claude, and go.

No fluff. That's the whole instruction.

01

THE HOOK MACHINE

When you need a scroll-stopper

COPY THIS PROMPT

Write 10 hooks for a [platform] post about [topic] for [audience]. Mix these types: bold claim, contrarian take, specific number, open question, "stop doing X". Max 12 words each. No emojis, no hashtags.

02 CAPTION IN OUR VOICE

Daily captions without the blank page

COPY THIS PROMPT

Here are 3 captions we've posted before: [paste 3]. Study the tone, sentence length, and structure. Now write a caption in exactly that voice about [topic]. Same energy, new idea. End with one clear CTA.

03 THE 30-SECOND SCRIPT

Reels/TikTok, ready to film

COPY THIS PROMPT

Write a 30-second video script about [topic] for [audience]. Structure: hook (3 sec), problem (5 sec), 3 quick points (15 sec), CTA (5 sec). Spoken language, short sentences, one idea per line. Add [B-ROLL] suggestions in brackets.

04 ONE IDEA, FIVE PLATFORMS

Repurposing without rewriting

COPY THIS PROMPT

Take this content: [paste post/blog/transcript]. Repurpose it into: (1) an Instagram caption, (2) a LinkedIn post, (3) a tweet/X thread of 4, (4) a 30-sec video script, (5) an email paragraph. Keep the core idea identical; adapt tone and format per platform.

05 THE WEEK PLANNER

7 days of content in one output

COPY THIS PROMPT

I run [business type] for [audience]. My content pillars: [3 pillars]. Plan 7 posts for next week: for each, give the platform, format (Reel/carousel/text), a hook, and a 2-line content summary. Mix education, proof, and personality. No two posts with the same format back-to-back.

06 BRAND VOICE EXTRACTOR

Teach AI to sound like you, once

COPY THIS PROMPT

Analyse these 5 pieces of our content: [paste]. Describe our brand voice in: tone (3 adjectives), sentence style, words we use, words we'd never use, and how we open and close. Output as a "voice guide" I can paste into future prompts.

07

THE OBJECTION KILLER

Sales content that answers real doubts

COPY THIS PROMPT

My offer: [describe]. List the 5 biggest objections my [audience] has before buying. For each, write one short piece of content (caption or email paragraph) that dissolves the objection with a fact, story, or reframe, without sounding defensive.

08

COMPETITOR GAP FINDER

Strategy in 10 minutes

COPY THIS PROMPT

Here's what 3 competitors post about: [describe or paste].
Here's what we do: [describe]. Identify 5 content angles they're ignoring that we're credible on. For each: the angle, why it's open, and one post idea.

09

CAROUSEL ARCHITECT

Swipeable posts that hold attention

COPY THIS PROMPT

Create an 8-slide carousel about [topic]. Slide 1: hook (max 8 words). Slides 2-7: one idea each, max 20 words per slide, each slide creating a reason to swipe. Slide 8: summary + CTA. Write the exact text per slide.

10 THE TITLE MULTIPLIER

YouTube/blog titles that get clicked

COPY THIS PROMPT

Write 10 titles for a [video/blog] about [topic]. 5 curiosity-driven, 5 benefit-driven. Under 60 characters each. Then mark the 2 you'd pick for click-through and say why in one line each.

11

COMMENT-TO-CONTENT

Your audience writes your calendar

COPY THIS PROMPT

Here are real comments/questions from our audience: [paste 5-10]. Group them into themes. For each theme, give me one content idea that answers it, with a hook and format suggestion. Rank by how often the theme appears.

12 THE CASE STUDY BUILDER

Proof content that converts

COPY THIS PROMPT

Turn these facts into a mini case study post: client type [X], problem [Y], what we did [Z], result [numbers].
Structure: relatable problem → what we changed → specific result → one-line lesson. 120 words max. No jargon, no bragging tone.

13 CTA SHARPENER

Stop ending posts with "link in bio"

COPY THIS PROMPT

Here's my post: [paste]. Write 5 different CTAs for it: one direct, one curiosity-based, one low-commitment (save/share), one conversation-starter, one urgency-based. Match the post's tone.

14 THE MONTHLY REVIEW

Data into decisions

COPY THIS PROMPT

Here's last month's content performance: [paste posts + metrics]. Identify: top 3 performers and the pattern behind them, bottom 3 and the likely reason, and 3 specific changes for next month. Be blunt. No generic advice.

15 THE DE-ROBOTIFIER

Fix AI-sounding drafts

COPY THIS PROMPT

Rewrite this so it sounds human: [paste draft]. Remove: filler phrases, corporate words, symmetric sentence patterns, and anything that sounds like a press release. Add: contractions, one short punchy sentence per paragraph, and specifics over generalities. Keep the meaning identical.

WANT THE OTHER 85?

These 15 are from the Cruz Creative Prompt Library: 100+ prompts we use daily on client brands. The full library ships inside our course, AI for Content Creators, launching this autumn.

You're already on the list to hear first.
